There's one thing you can say for golf and that is when you are playing, you cannot think of all your worries. Most other things you do, you still have time to think of your trials and tribulations, but not golf.

All you can think about is hitting that ball square, how much your feet hurt, how thirsty you are, how much your feet hurt, how you would like to make that putt, how much your feet hurt, the vision you have of teeing off perfectly and seeing the ball sail through the air in a straight line, and how much your feet hurt.

We went 16 holes yesterday afternoon and it's not much improvement in our performance.

This morning it was all we could do to get out of bed. After gingerly walking around a few minutes we began to loosen up and now all that hurts is our back which is not used to all that twisting.

Over at Gene and Lola Hurn's house Saturday night for a delightful evening of bridge. Gene was in the US Navy for twenty years and was in Japan for some time. They have some intriguing memories from Japan including some black prints.

We had six apaches and made it. That one should hold us for another year or two.

Dr. Kopperud brings in about 100 toothbrushes which we add to 12. Col. Dubois, Dr. Douglas Wadley sends in a whole bunch also. Two boxes of toothpaste, toothbrushes and soap have already been sent so just as soon as we get a few more things we'll send off another box.

Took us a long time to figure how much dirt is in a hole three feet wide, three feet deep and three feet long. That's right, nothing. Yeah, we figured 27 cubic feet.

Our Tully Poplar is just growing to just the bend. The wet weather apparently is good for it. New shoots are coming out on the Buckeye Trees too.

Another load of sand stone and we'll have enough to fix the flower bed. We're going to move the Tiger Lily, the Spider Lily and the Hibiscus to this bed where they'll get the sun they need.

Never saw anything grow like the Ponderosa Tree. It's about two feet high now and when it started it

Local Men To Leave For Reserve Training

The annual summer encampment for the 42nd Medical Service Flight will be conducted at Sewart AFB, Tenn., from 23 July through 5 August. Approximately 45 officers and enlisted personnel from Tennessee and Kentucky will attend for special training.

1st Lt. James S. Chastan of Chattanooga summarized the purpose of the unit as follows: "The Medical Service Flight is a relatively new unit which was organized to provide maximum flexibility. Because they are assigned to and train in active duty base medical facilities, they are able to 'flex' with those facilities to provide immediate augmentation or expansion."

Attending the summer encampment from the Murray area will be T. Sgt. Delbert F. Newsome, Almon E. K. Stalle, Jr., James B. Jones, William H. Solomon III, and T. Sgt. Randall B. Vaughn from Barkley Dam.

37 Convicts Die In Fire They Started

BERYDALE, Fla. (AP) — Rioting convicts deliberately set fire to their wooden barracks at a remote prison camp Sunday night, touching off a sudden inferno that killed 37 of them.

Only 14 men escaped alive, and six of them were severely burned. "I would guess they anticipated there would be some slight damage and it would cause some of them to be transferred," said Louie Wainwright, state prison director, who rushed to the little 51-prisoner camp in the Florida Panhandle today.

"The prisoners buried their television set to the floor and broke out light fixtures before setting two fires at opposite ends of the barracks, Wainwright said.

Most of the bodies were found jammed into the shower room at the rear of the building. Others were found in heaps by the door which Wainwright said was immediately unlocked — and by the barred windows.

"It started in a flash," Wainwright said. "The whole building was on fire almost momentarily." "They used some strips of newspaper and toilet paper to start the fire in each end of the building," Wainwright said.

He insisted there were no racial implications in the disaster at the camp, which was all-Negro until 15 white prisoners were brought in two weeks ago.

Guards saw two men — one white and another Negro — start one of the fires, Wainwright said. He said the guards didn't see who started the second fire.

At least one of the prisoners seen touching off the fire was killed in the holocaust, he said.

Rail Strike Ties Up War Efforts In U.S.

by United Press International

The country's economy and war efforts staggered under the siege hammer blow of a nationwide railroad strike today that continued to spread, slowing rail traffic to a trickle.

Congressional leaders huddled on Capitol Hill in an effort to fashion legislation that would end the strike, begun by 25,000 members of the International Brotherhood of Railway Employees.

Millions of travelers, cross-country and commuter alike, were left in the lurch by the strike, which began sporadically Sunday and grew in scope and strength with each passing hour.

In less than 24 hours the strike had come close to tying up 95 per cent of the nation's rail system, idling 700,000 rail employees and threatening to throw hundreds of thousands of jobs dependent on railroads for transportation of raw materials and finished goods.

Could Affect GM

The largest corporation in the world, General Motors, said today it would be forced to shut down its assembly lines in less than a week if the rail strike continues.

GM appeared to be the only major car manufacturer in trouble from a prolonged strike, since the company is 10 to 15 days away from completing the 1967 model run.

A rail industry spokesman in Washington said at least 27 railroads were shutdown completely with others operating on a partial basis and still others expected to halt operations.

The heavy financial drain, estimated at up to $35 million a day for the railroads, might put one railroad, the New Haven, out of business for good.

Samuel Kanell, executive director of the Connecticut Transportation Authority said the strike "could have a disastrous effect because the New Haven has barely enough cash to meet its payroll as it is."

The New Haven is a commuter line running into New York and has 25,000 daily passengers.

Hundreds of vacationers heading home from Expo 67 in Montreal found the Erie-Lackawanna "Laurentian," the Montreal to New York train, terminating at New Albany, N.Y.

Two Charged With Violating Draft Act

NASHVILLE (AP) — Two young men face trial in federal court next week on charges of violating the Selective Service laws.

Charles David Carter, a Nashville high school drop out, is charged with refusing to answer the draft call. His trial was scheduled for Monday.

The case of Louis Edwin Finch, charged with refusing to obey the order of his draft board, was set for the following Thursday.

Carter pleaded innocent to the charges and Finch was expected to plead conscientious objections for religious reasons.

Murray Couple Speak on Annual Kiwanis International Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Turner, North 12th Street, delegates to the 52nd annual convention of Kiwanis International in Houston, Texas, June 25-29, presented an interesting account of the convention at a ladies' night meeting of the club recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner were among 10,000 people, Kiwanians and their families, who attended the convention representing more than 275,000 Kiwanians in 5,400 clubs in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, Western Europe, the Far East and Central America.

During the five day convention, the Turners heard outstanding addresses by Charles Gould, Publisher of the San Francisco Examiner, Carl Gerstoker, Chairman of the Board of Dow Chemical Company, Astronaut Gordon Cooper, and Mrs. Shirley Temple Black.

Ten resolutions passed by the House of Delegates included: reaffirmation of faith in a Supreme Being; voluntary non-denominational prayer in public schools; respect for the flag of our nation; respect for law and order; safety as our individual responsibility; work toward air and water pollution control; uphold and support the war in Vietnam; and preservation of our individual freedoms.

In addition to Mr. Turner's report, Mrs. Turner described the activities for the ladies including a concert by the Houston Summer Symphony in the Jones Hall for the Performing Arts and a speech by Mrs. George W. Romney. One evening's program began with a Texas ranch dinner, included a soccer game and president's reception and ball in the famed Harris County Domes Stadium.

Dr. R. Glenn Reed, Jr., Marietta, Georgia, president of Kiwanis International, presided at the convention which had as its theme, "Quality Leadership, Key to the Future."

Guests of the local Kiwanians were their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Sisk and the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Scott. Maurice Humphrey, president, presided at the meeting.

Car, Truck In Accident On Friday

A car and a pick-up truck were involved in an accident at 12:06 p.m. Friday, July 14 on Chestnut Street.

Jack Aaron Levine of Route 1, Alto was driving a Dodge pick-up which had damage to the rear bumper. William David Daugherty Jr. of Route 1, Kirkwood Drive, Murray was driving a 1964 Volkswagen which had damage to the front end.

According to Officers Ed Knight and Dan Kelley and Sgt. Witherspoon who investigated the Levine truck was going west on Chestnut and was stopped for traffic and the Daugherty auto was also going west on Chestnut and failed to stop, hitting the truck in the rear end.

Mrs. Albie Miles, 72, of 503 Elm Street, Murray died at 12:15 a.m. yesterday at the Nashville Memorial Hospital, Nashville, Tenn. Death was due to complications and an extended illness.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Max H. Churchill Funeral chapel with Dr. H. C. Childs officiating. Burial will be in the South Pleasant Grove Cemetery. Friends may call anytime at the Max Churchill Funeral Home.

Mrs. Miles was a member of the First Baptist Church in Murray.

She is survived by three daughters Mrs. W. W. Treanor of Nashville; Mrs. Iris Jarvis of Madison, Tenn.; and Mrs. V. D. Martin of Cumden, So. Car.; a sister Mrs. Wilburn Spann of Murray; and two brothers Frank Enoch of Murray and Cleatus Enoch of Lynn Grove. Also surviving are seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

National Guard Is Withdrawn From Riot Area

By ROBERT E. SULLIVAN

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Gov. Richard J. Hughes today ordered the withdrawal of State Police and National Guardsmen who had been stationed here for four days to restore order in this riot-scarred city.

The governor told a midday news conference that he was directing a "orderly withdrawal" because rioting and looting had stopped and sniping has become "so sporadic that it is almost nonexistent."

Hughes said the sniping now was a problem that could be met by local officials to whom he returned control of the city. The governor had declared a state of emergency Friday night, imposing a 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew and sharp restrictions on activities throughout the city and, in effect, becoming chief of Newark.

The governor announced that the State Police and Guard withdrawal had started before this news conference and should be completed by tonight.

A small replacement force of State Police will be dispatched to the city however to provide protection for food distribution and other relief operations in the riot area, concentrated in the predominantly Negro Central Ward, he said.

The governor said he now would turn his efforts toward snuffing out the rioting and toward rebuilding the riot area, comprising more than a third of this 60 per cent Negro city of 400,000.

Paul N. Yvasker, state Commissioner of Community Affairs, will travel to Washington tonight or Tuesday, he said, to begin pressing federal officials for the necessary help.

Hughes said he might accompany Yvasker to the capital but declined to disclose the evidence.

He ordered all liquor stores, taverns and clubs closed and a 10 p.m. until 6 a.m. curfew imposed as Gov. Richard J. Hughes had ordered in Newark.

Other racial violence erupted during the night in Jersey City and Monmouth. Mobs of Negro youths broke wine glasses, threw tomatoes and hurled bricks and bottles at police and firemen.

The death toll in the violence stood at 25, one in Plainfield and 24 in Newark. At least 1,300 persons had been injured and more than 1,300 arrested.

Today is Monday, July 17, the 198th day of 1967 with 167 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Venus and Mars.

Born on this day in 1674, was British diplomat and essayist Joseph Addison.

On this day in history:

In 1862, President Lincoln was given the power to conscript men between 18 and 45 into the Union Army for nine months.

In 1896, the Spanish Civil War began when Gen. Francisco Franco led army troops against the government.

In 1946, Southern Democrats from 13 states organized a States' Rights party to oppose the Truman-Dewey ticket.

WATCH THAT PAINT MIX

The formula and ingredients used in making paint vary from manufacturer to manufacturer. Because of this, the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association cautions you to avoid intermingling the various brands. You'll get best results by using only quality coatings and carefully following all label directions.

DON'T "ROT" THE BOAT

In wooden boats, rot most often occurs under the deck in the bow or stern areas, near the shear clamp, or in areas of the hull which are submerged only part of the time. The National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association recommends that you treat these areas with a high quality wood preservative before applying a marine coating. Note: wood preservatives contain volatile solvents and should be allowed time to become thoroughly dry before painting over them.

Twins Get Potent Case Of Flag Fever

By SANDY PRISANT
UPI Sports Writer

Bob Allison's new, white to an old French physician's curious prescription hasn't done much as a cure, but it's causing a potent case of pennant fever among the Minnesota Twins.

No one has ever proved the medical value of Dr. Ooze's suggestion to his patients in the 1920s that they begin each day by reciting, "Every day in every way I am getting better and better," but it apparently does wonders for baseball players.

At this point last season Allison was so angry he refused to talk to the press, his right hand was injured so severely that he couldn't use a bat and you needed a microscope to see his home run and runs batted in totals. In general, he typified the Twins' post-pennant let down that followed their stunning surge to the American League flag in 1955.

Hot Bat

But Sunday he appeared to be a faithful follower of the good doctor after belting a three-run pinch homer that led the Twins 5-1 triumph over the California Angels in the opener and cracking a single and two-run homer in the nightcap that helped the Twins come from behind for a 7-6 victory. Minnesota moved within a half game of the stumbling Chicago White Sox.

"Every day in every way it feels a little bit more like 1955," Allison quipped after the doubleheader sweep.

Allison and his mates could afford to joke for the Twins gained a full game on the White Sox, who split with Kansas City, taking the opener 5-1, but dropping the nightcap 7-0.

Excellence in the American League, Baltimore nipped New York 2-1 in 14 innings, Boston hammered Detroit 9-5 and Washington topped Cleveland 4-1.

Mets Take Two

In National League play, New York swept a pair from St. Louis 2-1 and 2-5. Chicago took two from San Francisco 9-0 and 3-2. Philadelphia stopped Cincinnati 8-0. Houston took a doubleheader from Los Angeles, 4-1 and 2-1.

Allison, who hit an anemic eighth home run and drove in only 19 during all of 1966, crashed his 11th homer of the year to ignite a four-run rally in the seventh that backed Dave Boswell's four-hitter in the opener. In the second game, Allison hit No. 12 to tie the game at 6-6 in the seventh, to increase his RBI total to 41 and set the stage for Rich Rollins' solo blast on the first pitch in the bottom of the ninth.

The team that seems to be feeling the pressure the most is the White Sox, who clung to their lead through the pitching of Wilbur Wood and the hitting of J. C. Martin in the opener. Martin drove in three runs with a two-run double and a seventh-inning single while Wood stopped the Athletics on seven hits in the eighth and 1-3 innings he worked.

Paul Lindblad's three-hit pitching combined with Rick Monday's homer and three RBIs sparked the

Jack Lamabe Falls To Old Team Mates

By WILLIAM VERIGAN
UPI Sports Writer

Jack Lamabe pitches for the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals now, but the New York Mets still act like they own him.

A few hours after being acquired by the Cardinals from New York Sunday, the left-hander was pounded for seven hits and five runs in the two innings he worked as his former teammates swept a doubleheader 2-1 and 8-5.

The two losses cut the Cardinals' lead in the National League to two games over the Chicago Cubs, who won both ends of a doubleheader from the San Francisco Giants 9-0 and 3-2.

In other games, the Philadelphia Phillies pounded out 14 hits to beat the Cincinnati Reds 6-0. Mack Jones singled home the tie-breaking run in the sixth inning to lead the Atlanta Braves to a 2-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates, and the Houston Astros swept a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1 and 8-2.

Twins Win Two

In the American League, Minnesota defeated California 5-1 and 7-6. Chicago split with Kansas City, winning 5-1 and losing 7-9. Baltimore beat New York 2-1. Boston whipped Detroit 9-5 and Washington topped Cleveland 4-1.

Ed Kranepool, who had gone hitless in his last 17 times at bat, broke out of his slump by blasting two homers and driving in five runs for the Mets. He won the first game with a two-run homer in the seventh inning and sparked a five-run rally in the fifth inning of the nightcap by smashing a homer with Tommy Davis on base.

Lamabe, who has lost four straight, was the victim of Kranepool's second homer.

Adolfo Phillips' grand slam homer and Ernie Banks' three-run circuit shot led the Cubs to victory in the opener of their doubleheader.

Extra Inning Decides

The Yankees appeared to have won their fourth in a row as Fred Thurston cruised along with a five-hitter after Mickey Mantle unloaded his 513th career home run in the second inning. But for the second time in four days the Yankees were caught in the ninth and then beaten in extra innings.

Brooks Robinson homered in the ninth and Curt Blefary doubled home Paul Blair in the 14th while three Orioles batters were holding the Yankees to four hits.

Boston moved into a tie with Detroit for third place, thanks to home runs by Tony Conigliaro and Carl Yastrzemski. The Red Sox got five runs in the third, including a three-run homer by Conigliaro and Yastrzemski helped finish the Tigers by stroking his 21st of the year in the seventh, surpassing his single-season high.

The surprise Senators won their seventh in a row as Bob Humphreys and Bob Priddy combined for a four-hitter and Ken McMullen socked two home runs.

Humphreys, making only his second start in 171 major league appearances, held the Indians to three hits over the six scoreless innings he worked.

with San Francisco.

Banks also homered in the second game in the second inning after a walk to Ron Santo, but the deciding run came in the ninth when Santo drove in Beckert with a sacrifice fly. Ray Culp allowed seven hits in winning his seventh game in the opener. Believer Chuck Hartenstein gained his fourth victory in five decisions in the nightcap.

Eddie Mathews and Jim Wynn homered to propel the Astros to an 8-2 victory in the night cap and Ron Davis doubled home two runs during a three-run rally in the sixth inning of the first game against Los Angeles.

Paul Nickerson pitched a five-hitter for Atlanta against Pittsburgh for his fifth victory against four losses.

John Callison homered off Cincinnati closer Gary Arigo as Jim Bunning pitched a four-hitter for the Phillies. It was Bunning's ninth win against eight losses.

Divorced Woman Breaking Up Home

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: For the past two years my husband has had a young woman in his department who seems to be the topic of conversation all over town. She is about 30, has been divorced twice, and I am told, has some very unconventional ideas about men and morals.

She openly dates married men and has been heard to say, "If a woman can't hold her husband, it's not my fault."

Whenever her name comes up, my husband defends her—saying she's a "nice" girl who is sick on only one subject: Men! She flirts brazenly and tells off-color stories, but because she is pretty she gets away with it.

I have been in a state of turmoil over this for some time, and cannot accept the fact that she is "nice." I'm about ready to give up. I don't want to demand that my husband leave her go, but I wish she would be transferred out of his department (Out of the city would be better yet.)

The Ladies Day luncheon will be held at the Oaks Country Club. Those wishing to make reservations should call Beth Branch or Dulcie Douglas.

The Elm Grove Baptist Church Woman's Missionary Society will hold its general meeting at the church at 1:30 p.m. The circle meeting will be held at the church at 7:30 p.m.

What should I do about this situation?

DEAR UNEASY: Nothing. Just ask your husband how long he would put up with a "nice" wife who was sick on only one subject: Men!

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I are newlyweds. She wants to have a dinner party and invite all her old boy friends. All these fellows are still single. I told her I didn't think much of the idea.

She says she wants to maintain them as "platonist" friends, and besides they all gave her lovely wedding gifts so she thinks she "owes" them a dinner. I say they all received thank-you notes for their gifts just as the others did. We would like your opinion.

DEAR NEWLYWEDS: A wedding gift doesn't necessarily call for a dinner invitation. If your bride really wants to invite these ex-beans to dinner in order to maintain them as platonic friends, she should ask them to bring their own girls. But if she has in mind surrounding herself with the old guard to make those squires and feel like losers, she should forget it lest she make them feel like winners.

DEAR ABBY: I've read about almost every kind of oddball in your column except this one.

My husband does all the grocery shopping because he "enjoys" it. Besides the regular things, he buys all kinds of goodies for himself, like candy, potato chips, nuts, etc. And he hides his goodies so he won't have to share them.

He is a very wealthy man, Abby, but you'd never know it. What makes people act like this?

DEAR JUST: Could it be that your husband is a calorie counter who doesn't want anyone to know how much he indulges? Or that he doesn't want YOU to get fat? Or perhaps he enjoys something more when he "eats" it—a mild and not uncommon quirk. Anyway, you two must have fun playing hide and seek.

CONFIDENTIAL TO JIMMY'S GIRL: Nonsense. If he really loved you he'd get a shave and a haircut just because you asked him to. But on the other hand, if you really loved him (he will say), you wouldn't raise the question knowing why he raised the beard.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Miss Lynda Lee Pocock Becomes Bride Of Joseph Garman Chaney, Jr. In Ceremony In Sanctuary Of First Christian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garman Chaney, Jr.

The beautifully candlelighted sanctuary of the First Christian Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lynda Lee Pocock and Joseph Garman Chaney, Jr. on Saturday, June 3, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening.

Rev. William M. Porter, minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with arrangements of yellow and white Fuji mums and gladioli flanked by burning tapers in seven branched candelabra. The candles were lighted by Danny Carroll.

Of special interest were the hand carved candle sticks in each window holding cathedral tapers tied with greenery and white ribbons. The pews were decorated with white tapers in white wrought iron holders tied with yellow pom-poms and bows. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Dan McDaniell, organist, and Mrs. William M. Porter, soloist, presented a lovely program of musical music before the ceremony. Selections by Mrs. Porter were "Song of Ruth" and "On Perfect Love." The traditional wedding marches were used. After the vows had been exchanged, the bride couple received communion while kneeling on a white wrought iron and leather bench. Communion was also served to the maid of honor and best man after which Mrs. Porter sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Pocock of Murray and John Pocock of Murray Route Two. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chaney, Sr., of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her floor length gown of white peau de sole gown designed with an Aline skirt. Empire waist and round neckline. Chantilly lace covered the bodice and fashioned the three quarter length sleeves. Her cathedral length train, also of Chantilly lace, extended from the Empire waistline. Her three tiered elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a headpiece fashioned of a self fabric encrusted with pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of Fuji mums, the green leaves being accented with pearls and satin ribbon.

Miss Gail Thurman was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Cary Miller, Mrs. Ron Campbell, sister of the groom, Mrs. Darwin Weatherford and Miss Jeanie Pratt.

Miss Thurman, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Miller wore formal length gowns of pale green peau de sole satin fashioned with round necklines and Empire waists, the waists being accented with dark green velvet bands. Their shoulder length veils were attached to a head piece of self fabric roses. Their shoes were dyed to match.

Mrs. Weatherford and Miss Pratt wore formal length gowns of the same design in pale yellow peau de sole satin with yellow head pieces and shoes dyed to match.

The attendants all carried bouquets of yellow Fuji mums tied with green and yellow satin streamers.

The father of the groom served as best man. The ushers were Ron Campbell, brother-in-law of the groom, Don Saunders, Carl Roberts, Johnny Pocock, brother of the bride, and Benjie Humphrey. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pocock wore a seafoam green sheath dress in silk shantung and a matching lace coat with three quarter length sleeves. She wore dyed to match accessories, and her corsage was fashioned of a yellow cymbidium orchid. Mrs. Chaney was attired in a yellow sheath dress designed with a round neckline and three quarter length sleeves, her accessories being in gold. Her corsage was also fashioned of a yellow cymbidium orchid.

The bride's stepmother, Mrs. John Pocock, wore a beige linen embroidered under lace dress with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The ushers all wore yellow carnation boutonnières and white dinner jackets.

Reception
Following the wedding a reception was held at the Murray Woman's Club House.

Miss Ann Thurman kept the register at a table centered with an arrangement of yellow gladioli, Fuji mums and greenery.

The bride's table was covered with a yellow cloth under white lace and centered with an epergne of yellow and white flowers, yellow Fuji mums, snapdragons and baby's breath. This was flanked by yellow tapers in matching crystal and silver candlesticks.

The four tiered wedding cake was decorated with white roses and topped with white wedding bells. All other appointments were in crystal.

Presiding at the punch bowl and serving the refreshments of cake, nuts and minis, were Miss Balette Jones, Miss Cynthia Albritton and Miss Trudy Lilly, all of Murray.

For travel the bride wore a black shift with yellow trim and black patent accessories, and a corsage of yellow Fuji mums. Mr. and Mrs. Chaney will reside in Kalamazoo for the summer and return to Murray this fall where Mr. Chaney will resume study at Murray State University and Mrs. Chaney will enter beauty school.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Feldtknecht of Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pettit of Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Dupuy, Kent Reed, Charles Gilliam and David Cash all of Mayfield; Mrs. Hughes Pratt of Farmington, Mo.; Mrs. Tom Zeller of Paducah; Mrs. Ruby Bennett of Madisonville; Miss Nancy Humphreys and Ricky Key of Louisville; Jack Neuhaur of Chicago, Ill.; Vicki Sanders, Paula Sanders of Horse Cave; Drake Cutini of St. Clair Shores, Michigan; Tom Jones of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mike Reid of Symonia; Burt Poole, Bob Overmyer, Karen Feckels, Pat Bradley and Carl

Bridal Dessert Is Held At Holiday For Bride-elect

Mrs. Lee Redden and Mrs. Coy Wiggins entertained with a lovely dessert in honor of Miss Ann Morris, bride-elect of Hamp Wiggins Brooks. Mrs. Redden and Mrs. Wiggins are maternal aunts of the groom.

The occasion was held on Wednesday, July 5, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the dining room of the Holiday Inn.

Miss Morris chose to wear a gray voile sheath dress with white accessories from her trousseau. Her hostesses' gift-corsage was gardenias.

The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Robert L. Morris, Jr., wore a pink linen dress and the groom's mother, Mrs. W. H. Brooks, wore a black and white two piece suit. Both were presented corsages of Morette all of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Rehearsal Dinner
The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner held on Friday, June 2, at eight o'clock in the evening in the Red Room of the Holiday Inn.

Centering the table was an arrangement of white gladioli. During the evening the bride couple presented gifts to their attendants. Covers were laid for twenty-one persons.

pink carnations. Miss Morris was presented with a place setting of her chosen pattern of stainless dinner ware as a wedding gift from the hostesses.

Centering the red and white table was a lovely floral arrangement of magnolias in a silver tray.

Covers were laid for Miss Morris, her mother, Mrs. Morris, her mother-in-law to be, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Dossie Whetley, cousin of the bride-elect, and the hostesses.
